

I oppose any rule changes which would allow further consolidation of media ownership, and feel that since the American people own the airwaves, they have a right to more public hearings on this subject.

Sincerely, Larry Packwood